

BEATTY & WOZNIAK, P.C.
Energy in the Law

NEW ADDITIONS

Dante Tomassoni comes to join the Beatty & Wozniak Title Department and will be working with some of our North Dakota clients before ND Industrial Commission. Prior to joining the firm, Dante was with Crowley Fleck, PLLP in Bismarck, ND where his practice consisted of Oil and Gas Title and Litigation work. Before practicing with Crowley Fleck, Dante spent a year as a landman and in-house curative attorney for Petro-Hunt LLC in Bismarck. Dante is licensed in North Dakota and Minnesota and will be taking the Colorado Bar this July.

Eric Vinton joined the firm as an associate in March of 2011. Eric has an active business transactional practice, focusing on general corporate matters, mergers & acquisitions, and equity and debt financings. Prior to joining the firm, Eric had a solo practice after practicing in the Denver offices of Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck LLP for over five years, and previously at Kutak Rock LLP.

Craig Gleaton joined Beatty & Wozniak as an associate in January of 2011, with his practice based in the title group. Craig's primary focus is on the preparation of title opinions covering federal, state and fee lands. Prior to joining the firm, Craig practiced for over three years as an oil and gas and title attorney in Fort Worth, Texas, where he completed several hundred title opinions and represented operator-clients in purchase and sale agreements. He is presently licensed in Texas and is seeking licensure in Colorado and Wyoming in 2011.

Tom RuBane joined the firm as an Associate after practicing with the Oklahoma City firm Hampton & Milligan for four years. Tom's practice has focused on rendering title opinions for properties in Texas, Oklahoma and North Dakota. His initial work at Beatty & Wozniak will mainly focus on North Dakota title.
